

PET Quality Control Report

This report has been generated automatically by CapAIBL v1.0 for quality control purpose

Subject's 18F-Florbetaben images: Spatially normalised to the MNI PET template

Representative slices of the spatially normalised PET images to assess the quality of the registration and the placement of the reference region.

Subject's 18F-Florbetaben images in native space

Representative slices of the uploaded PET images to check that their orientation is correct with respect to the PET template

